

GREEK (GR)

GR 121 Elementary Greek - 4 Hours

Introductory course in essential features of Koine Greek, mastery of basic sound and structural patterns, acquisition of a nucleus of vocabulary, development of comprehension and reading skills through oral-aural drills, applications of skills to sample passages from the Greek New Testament. Offered each year. Credit for both semesters is required in order to apply to major or general education foreign language competency. Offered each semester for Deerfield traditional undergraduate. Delivery mode: Deerfield traditional undergraduate.

GR 122 Elementary Greek - 4 Hours

Introductory course in essential features of Koine Greek, mastery of basic sound and structural patterns, acquisition of a nucleus of vocabulary, development of comprehension and reading skills through oral-aural drills, applications of skills to sample passages from the Greek New Testament. Offered each year. Credit for both semesters is required in order to apply to major or general education foreign language competency. Offered each semester for Deerfield traditional undergraduate. Delivery mode: Deerfield traditional undergraduate.

GR 221X Intermediate Greek - 3 Hours

Building on the foundation laid in GR 121-GR 122 this course equips students for applied exegesis of the Greek New Testament. Emphasis is placed on exegetical method and practical application, with the goal of building lifelong habits for the use of Greek in interpreting the New Testament. Prerequisite: GR 121-GR 122. Offered fall semester for Deerfield traditional undergraduate. Cross-listed with BI 221X. Delivery mode: Deerfield traditional undergraduate.

GR 222X Intermediate Greek - 3 Hours

Continuation of GR 221X. Prerequisite: GR 221X. Offered on demand for Deerfield traditional undergraduate. Cross-listed with BI 222X. Delivery mode: Deerfield traditional undergraduate.