LA 999y Civil and Criminal Sexual Misconduct - 1 Hour

This program will cover a broad range of conduct that can qualify as civil or criminal sexual misconduct. From words, to actions, to electronic communication and social media, it will examine a variety of different ways in which misconduct could subject a person, entity, or agency to legal liability. Sexual harassment is actionable civilly, and sexual assault or battery is actionable both civilly and criminally. This program will discuss the different internal and legal remedies for different types of behavior, and how each process is initiated. It will also discuss potential legal hurdles including Statutes of Limitations and jurisdictional issues. This program will discuss the blurred lines between sexual harassment and sexual assault, both behaviorally and legally. It will also examine areas of overlap, and how inappropriate physical behavior can be classified as both. This program will also address the red flags and warning signs that serve as precursors to sexually inappropriate behavior and assault, and how to spot them sooner rather than later. It will discuss both verbal and physical boundary violations including personal questions, physical contact, inappropriate requests, and online boundary probing. Participants will learn how to spot red flags and warning behaviors before conduct progresses to sexual assault. This program will also cover the red flag relational dynamics involved in both types of invasive behavior, and how sexual harassers often graduate to committing sexual assault through insidious boundary violations. This program will also address best practices to ensure a safe, harassment-free workplace for everyone through early detection, effective investigation, and an environment of empowerment and support.
