

FULL-TIME FACULTY

Full-time and regular faculty include full-time teaching faculty and administrators, and faculty and administrators with part-time teaching loads and other institutional responsibilities. All are involved in daily campus life. In the case of teaching faculty, they have completed the regular full interview process, or in some cases, may be a Dean's appointment. The date that follows the name of each faculty member indicates the year that full-time teaching at Trinity began.

David K. Bryan, 2020

Director of TEDS Undergraduate Programs

Assistant Professor of New Testament [UG]

BA, James Madison University

MTh, Luther Seminary

MDiv, PhD, Trinity Evangelical Divinity School

Dr. Bryan started his work at TEDS as an adjunct professor and then Masters Programs Coordinator. He served previously on a church planting team in Madrid, Spain, and currently serves as a pastor at Lakeview Presbyterian Church in Vernon Hills. He is the co-editor of Ascent Into Heaven in Luke-Acts (Fortress, 2016) and has published other works related to the Gospel of Luke. His research interests focus on the Gospel of Luke, the parables of Jesus, authority and politics in the ancient world, political theology, and the kingdom of God. He is currently revising his dissertation on Luke's narration of the domain of Jesus's authority for publication, and he is also working on a monograph on the art of hearing and preaching Jesus's parables. He and his wife, Beth, have three children.

Steven M. Bryan, 2016

Felipe do Vale, 2021

Chair of the Biblical and Systematic Theology Department

Assistant Professor of Biblical and Systematic Theology

BA, Calvin College

MAs, Trinity Evangelical Divinity School

PhD, Southern Methodist University

Dr. do Vale is Assistant Professor of Systematic Theology. He has an enduring interest in utilizing the tools of theology to investigate those categories of identity that make being human so remarkably complex, like gender, race, disability, politics and the like. His research is driven by the conviction that the recognizable tools of theology, accountable as they are to the gospel, are suitable to address these complexities of being human in a distinctly Christian way. His first book, released from Baker Academic in November 2023, is entitled Gender as Love: A Theological Account of Human Identity, Embodied Desire, and Our Social Worlds, and it provides a theological answer to the question "What is gender?" He has published articles in the International Journal of Systematic Theology (where he won the Colin Gunton Prize), Philosophia Christi, The Irish Theological Quarterly, TheoLogica, and The Journal of Reformed Theology among others. He has presented his research nationally and internationally, including Rome and Helsinki. Dr. do Vale was born in Belo Horizonte, Minas Gerais, Brazil.
