The Bannockburn Campus of Trinity International University rests on a beautifully wooded campus six miles west of Lake Michigan, 25 miles north of downtown Chicago, and 17 miles north of O'Hare International Airport. Though in a suburban location, we are close enough to Chicago to have easy access to the numerous educational, ministerial, cultural, and sporting opportunities in the city.

Bannockburn Campus Facilities

The Lee International Center, on the east side of campus, contains the offices of Student Life and International Student & Scholars, as well as a conference room, the Fireside Lounge, and an apartment for visiting guests.

The Mansion Administrative Building houses the President's office, Admissions and Marketing, and University Advancement.

The Norton Welcome Center houses the Business Office, Financial Aid, Academic Records, and Information Technology teams.

The Arnold T. Olson Chapel was built by the EFCA in appreciation of Dr. Arnold T. Olson, who served as EFCA president for 25 years. The 500-seat chapel auditorium houses a two-manual, 25-rank Casavant pipe organ and serves as a worship center, lecture hall, concert hall, and conference facility. In addition to the auditorium, the chapel building holds several classrooms.

The Peterson Academic Building contains the Kantzer Faculty Center and the Veenstra Office Wing. Here you will find the majority of TEDS faculty offices, the Center for Faith and Children, the Carl F.H. Henry Center, and the Hiebert Center. The Kantzer Faculty Center houses a 130-seat lecture hall and provides handicapped access to the Arnold T. Olson Chapel.

The H. G. Rodine Global Ministry Building, on the east side of campus, features seminar halls, conference rooms, and classrooms and the campus fitness center.

The James E. Roling Memorial Library and the Carl F. H. Henry Resource Center serve the students across our University. Print, media, and electronic resources are tailored to the curricula and information needs of the university community. The collection contains more than 240,000 book and periodical volumes (with access to more than 8,000,000), 150,000 volumes on microform, and more than 1,200 current periodical subscriptions. It also houses the Center for Bioethics and Human Dignity and Open Hands.

The Gregory L. Waybright Center is the student center, featuring the Hawkins Dining Hall, Lantern Lounge, Campus Post Office, student mailboxes, and amenities, such as ping-pong and several large-screen televisions. The lower level includes offices for TEDS academic administration including the Academic Dean's Office, Master's Program

Office, Master of Divinity Program Office, Academic Doctoral Office, and Professional Doctoral Office.
