Accreditation

Trinity Law School is accredited by the Committee of Bar Examiners of the State Bar of California (CBE). Trinity Law School is a school of Trinity International University, which is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC). Trinity Law School students must comply with the rules and regulations of the CBE as well as the HLC.

Trinity Law School's degree-granting authority is in connection with its JD students qualifying to take the California Bar Examination and obtain admission to the practice of law in California based on accreditation by the CBE.

BUREAU OF PRIVATE POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION (BPPE) APPROVED SCHOOL DISCLOSURES

Under the provisions of the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009, the State of California created within its Department of Consumer Affairs (DCA), the BPPE, which oversees the 1,500 private postsecondary institutions to prevent deception in the conferring and use of fraudulent or substandard degrees. Trinity International University is an accredited private institution and has been granted approval to operate as an accredited institution in the state of California. The BPPE has determined that Trinity International University is in compliance and was granted approval to operate under the terms of California Education Code section 94890(a)(1).

Any questions a student may have regarding this catalog that have not been satisfactorily answered by the institution may be directed to the BPPE at P.O. Box 980818, West Sacramento, CA 95798-0818 or 1747 N. Market Blvd. Ste 225, Sacramento, CA 95834; www.bppe.ca.gov; 888.370.7589 or 916.574.8900; or by fax 916.263.1897.

A student or any member of the public may file a complaint about this institution with the BPPE by calling (toll-free telephone number 888.370.7589) or by completing a complaint form, which can be obtained on the bureau's internet web site (web site address: www.bppe.ca.gov). Trinity International University does not have a pending petition in bankruptcy, is not operating as a debtor in possession, has not ever filed a petition in bankruptcy, or has never had a petition in bankruptcy filed against it in its history that resulted in reorganization under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. Sec. 1101 et seq.).

The Office of Student Assistance and Relief is available to support prospective students, current students, or past students of private postsecondary educational institutions in making informed decisions, understanding their rights, and navigating available services and relief options. The office may be reached by calling (888) 370-7589 or by visiting www.bppe.ca.gov.

Records

For applicants who do not enroll, Trinity Law School retains all documents received in the admission process for at least two years.

Trinity Law School maintains a file for each student who enrolls, whether or not the student graduates, for at least five years beyond the date the student last attended. Records of a student's academic performance while at the law school are permanently retained. A student record file contains all of the following pertinent student records:

- Written records and transcripts of any formal education or training, testing, or experience that are relevant to the student's qualifications for admission to the institution or the institution's award of credit or acceptance of transfer credits, including
 - Verification of high school completion or equivalency or other documentation establishing the student's ability to do college level work such as successful completion of an ability-to-benefit test.
- Records documenting units of credit earned at other institutions that have been accepted and applied by the institution as transfer credits toward the student's completion of an educational program.

- Grades or findings from any examination of academic ability or educational achievement used for admission or college placement purposes.
- All documents evidencing a student's prior experiential learning upon which the institution and the faculty base the award of any credit.
- Personal information regarding a student's age, sex, and ethnicity if that information has been voluntarily supplied by the student.
- Copies of all documents signed by the student, including contracts, instruments of indebtedness, and documents relating to financial aid.
- Records of the dates of enrollment and, if applicable, withdrawal from the institution, leaves of absence, and graduation.
- A transcript showing
 - The courses or other educational programs that were completed, or were attempted but not completed, and the dates of completion or withdrawal.
 - Credit awarded for prior experiential learning, including the course title for which credit was awarded and the amount of credit.
 - Credit for courses accepted in transfer earned at other institutions.
 - Credit based on any examination of academic ability or educational achievement used for admission or college placement purposes.
 - The name, address, website address, and telephone number of the institution.
- For independent study courses, course outlines, or learning contracts signed by the faculty and administrators who approved the course.
- The dissertations, theses, and other student projects submitted by graduate students.
- A copy of documents relating to student financial aid that are required to be maintained by law or by a loan guarantee agency.
- Documentation of the total amount of money received from or on behalf of the student and the date or dates on which the money was received.
- Documentation of the amount of any refund, including the amount refunded for tuition and the amount for other itemized charges, the method of calculating the refund, the date the refund was made, and the name and address of the person or entity to which the refund was sent.
- Any official advisory notices or warnings regarding the student's progress.
- Complaints received from the student.
