

BIBLICAL STUDIES MINOR

Students who complete a minor in biblical studies should be able to:

- Articulate some personal theological convictions by integrating scriptural interpretation and critical thinking. (Theological Integration)
- Articulate biblical texts in their historical, grammatical, and theological context and interpret the Scriptures accurately by applying linguistic, historical, theological, and philosophical methods. (Biblical Interpretation)
- Develop a Christian worldview that describes how biblical truths apply to contemporary settings in order to be culturally relevant. (Biblical Application)

Minor in Biblical Studies *

Code	Title	Hours
BI 290	Interpreting and Teaching the Bible	3
BRS 305	Theology I: The God of the Gospel	3
BRS 306	Theology II: The Gospel of God	3
Biblical and theological studies electives		9
Total Hours		18

*Assumes general education Bible course requirements are met